YOUR PARKS SALES PRO

No One Knows The Parks of Plaquemines Better!

Whether you're interested in relocating to The Parks of Plaquemines or in selling your current home there, The Kelly Waltemath Group is here to help.

Kelly serves as the New Home, Resale, and Builder Specialist in all of the Waltemath developments across South Louisiana. She is the daughter of The Parks Developer David L. Waltemath. As a 4th generation real estate professional in her family, the industry was in her blood and eventually became Kelly's personal passion, hobby, and life long career choice.

After graduating LSU in 2014, Kelly joined Keller Williams and began working with the family development company. Today, Kelly lives and works in The Parks every day. She has been a consistent top producer throughout her real estate career and is often in the Top 5% of Keller Williams Realtors in the Gulf States Region.

As a team, The Kelly Waltemath Group serves as a one stop shop... frequently helping clients buy, build, or sell at the same time. Their connections, experience, expertise, and knowledge bring added value to all their transactions. They help buyers understand the communities and are often aware of future inventory not yet on the market. To add value to their seller and builder clients, their team encompasses top-notch, experienced sales, marketing, and transaction professionals to get your home sold as quickly as possible and for top dollar.

The Kelly Waltemath Group would love to have you as their next client!
